

JACANA MEDIA

Marketing & Publicity

Are you book BEFOK?

Does the world turn you on?

Wild about ideas and even wilder about driving them into being?

Can you invent marketing campaigns that fly on shoestrings and still seduce the world?

If you can write a press release, comfort an author, tweet to the world, cope with missing stock, deal with shouty people and dream up a new campaign to sell local fiction – all before lunch – you are our kind of person.

We're looking for someone to head our marketing department, are you the one?

Tell us about it.

Closing date for applications: 30 November 2017

Start date: 9 January 2018
